

THROUGH THE LENS- LONGMEADOW 100 YEARS AGO

sponsored by the Longmeadow Historian

The "Old Red House" was built by Captain Simon Colton in 1734 and is a fine example of a New England "saltbox".

The "old red house" displayed on the official Longmeadow town seal was first adopted in 1974. The design was created by Wallis Sturtevant.

by Judy and Jim Moran