

THROUGH THE LENS- LONGMEADOW 100 YEARS AGO

sponsored by the Longmeadow Historian

891 Longmeadow St.- 1908

Mr. Albion K. Matthews was appointed the Longmeadow Postmaster from 1885 - 1889 and from 1893 - 1897. During this period of time postal business was conducted at 891 Longmeadow Street. He died in 1900. His wife, Elizabeth operated a small store- The Peoples Cheap Cash Store at the same location selling various items including thread, needles, pins and other articles.

by Judy and Jim Moran