

THROUGH THE LENS- LONGMEADOW 100 YEARS AGO

sponsored by the Longmeadow Historian

201 Longmeadow Street

Bernard E. Graves and his wife, Mary lived in this home at the corner of Longmeadow Street and Converse Street. Mr. Graves spent his 52 year career with the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co.. He began working as a Clerk and retired as a Registrar with the company.

Throughout his life Mr. Graves was an active citizen of Longmeadow. He was the Secretary of the Longmeadow Tennis Club in 1913 and watched the progress of the new tennis courts as they were being built on the grounds of what was to become the current Richard Salter Storrs Library. Mr. Graves was also a member of the May Breakfast Committee at First Church.

by Judy and Jim Moran

