

THROUGH THE LENS- LONGMEADOW 100 YEARS AGO

sponsored by the Longmeadow Historian

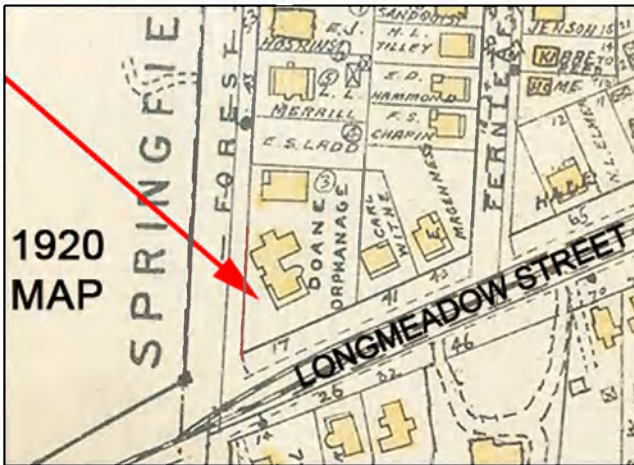

Photo Credit: Paesiello Emerson- April 1915
Digital Commonwealth/ Longmeadow Historical Society

In 1902, George Sanford Doane and his wife Lucy Maria Cook established the Doane Orphanage at the corner of Longmeadow Street and Forest Glen Road.

In the 1910 Census, 24 children, ages 6 to 11, were residents of the Doane Orphanage with birthplaces including Massachusetts, Vermont, Ohio, Maine and Connecticut. In many cases brothers and sisters were paired together.

written by Judy and Jim Moran